How to Apply for Admission to DDD

Contact the intake office on your island and schedule a meeting with an intake worker.

<http://health.hawaii.gov/ddd/files/2018/01/DDD-Intake-Booklet.pdf>

Intake process can take several months

Includes Assessment and Psychological Evaluation, Medical Reports, Specialist Reports, and Department of Education records review.

When to Apply?

Now! DDD provides services to individuals throughout their lifespan. If denied before, the student can apply again.

After admission into DDD, a needs type assessment and an Individualized Service Plan (ISP) will need to be completed. This process can take up to a month.

How to Apply for Direct Service Supports

Once admitted into DDD the student will automatically get Targeted Case Management. To get additional direct service supports they must apply for and qualify for Medicaid and then Medicaid Home and Community Based Waiver Services through the Department of Human Services. This two-step approval process will take a minimum of three months.

With DDD Waiver Services you can receive Employment Related Options: Benefit Counseling, Discovery & Career Planning, Individual Employment Supports, and a direct service worker to assist the student at college (post-secondary education).

Other DDD Waiver Services – Includes Community Learning Service for other than on the job training.

Department of Education (DOE) Special Education

Special education is specially designed instruction and services to meet the unique needs of students with disabilities, and can include academic services, speech-language services, psychological services, physical and occupational therapy, and counseling services. The Department provides these services at no cost to families to students aged 3 to 22 who demonstrates a need for specially designed instruction, after an eligibility determination.

How do I get help for my child?

Contact your child's home school, which is the neighborhood school that the student attends and request an evaluation. The request can be made by [either]:

- Verbally, in person, or by phone;
- In a written letter, faxed, or e-mailed; or
- On the State of Hawaii Request for Evaluation form obtained from the school.

If completing the Request for Evaluation form, write down all the problems that your child is having, even if you may not consider them educational problems. Return the form

Developmental Disabilities Council (DDC)

This brochure started as a Tri-agency Map to Employment for Students with Developmental Disabilities Transitioning from High School. It represents the efforts of the Inter Agency Work group comprised of the Departments of Education, Health (DD Division and DD Council), and Human Services (Division of Vocational Rehabilitation Services), and the Center on Disability Studies collaborating to increase and improve post high school opportunities for students with disabilities. It is intended to be a simple introduction to facilitate discussion and meetings between the agencies, student, and family. Frequently Asked Questions

- If a student is receiving 1:1 supports in the school can they still receive DDD Waiver Services? Yes. DDD Waiver Services are not provided during school hours, so it is not a duplication of service.
- Does a student have to be denied DVR services before a they can get DDD Waiver Services for employment? No. DDD Waiver Services for employment supports can happen at the same time however, close coordination with DDD, DVR and DOE must occur to assure no duplication of services.
- If a student gets a job and gets paid, will they lose all their benefits, like SSI, Medicaid, SNAP? No. Benefit counseling is recommended to assure this does not happen. Also, an Achieving a Better Life Experience (ABLE) account can be set up to protect the students benefits.
- If a student deemed ineligible for admission into DDD can they reapply? Yes. It is recommended to reapply in one year.
- If a student was receiving Waiver services in another State, will they automatically be eligible for DDD services in Hawaii? No. They must apply when they arrive to Hawaii and meet Hawaii's eligibility criteria.
